Capital Appearance—The Beatles performed for a youthful audience in Washington on the night of February 12.

Opening for Juniors—These college juniors join the Peace Corps' new summer project for six to eight weeks of training similar to that for regular Peace Corps volunteers. They later did surveying work near Taos, N.M. After graduation they will be sent to Latin America.

Ranger on Target—This is a photograph of the lunar surface taken by the Ranger 7 spacecraft prior to its impact on the moon July 31st. The area shown is about one and two-thirds miles on a side. The smallest craters are about 30 feet in diameter and 10 feet deep. Some of the large craters are about 300 feet in diameter.

Family Grieves—Gust Carlson, father of Dr. Paul Carlson, medical missionary slain by rebel troops in the Congo, dabbed at his eyes during a news conference in Los Angeles on November 24. He is flanked by his daughter and another son.

New Teen-Age Queen—Smiling Carolyn Mignini, 17, of Baltimore was crowned the new Miss Teen-age America of 1965 in Dallas on November 13.

World's Fair at Night—The New York World's Fair attracted as many visitors at night as it did during the day following its April opening. The nighttime lights set off the beautiful pavilions constructed by many countries.

Democratic Victor—President Lyndon Johnson won the 1964 election by the greatest plurality and per cent of the total vote in U. S. history. Johnson became President at the assassination of John F. Kennedy in 1963.

Barry's Battle for Votes—Sen. Barry Goldwater was surrounded by fans at Knoxville, Tenn., airport September 16 as he campaigned for the presidency on the Republican ticket. The conservative senator swept to a first-ballot nomination at the convention in San Francisco.

National Events in Review—1964

Cards are the Winners—Roger Craig leaped on a group of teammates surrounding the pitcher Bob Gibson moments after the last out in the seventh World Series game won by the Redbirds over the Yankees, 7-5, in St. Louis.

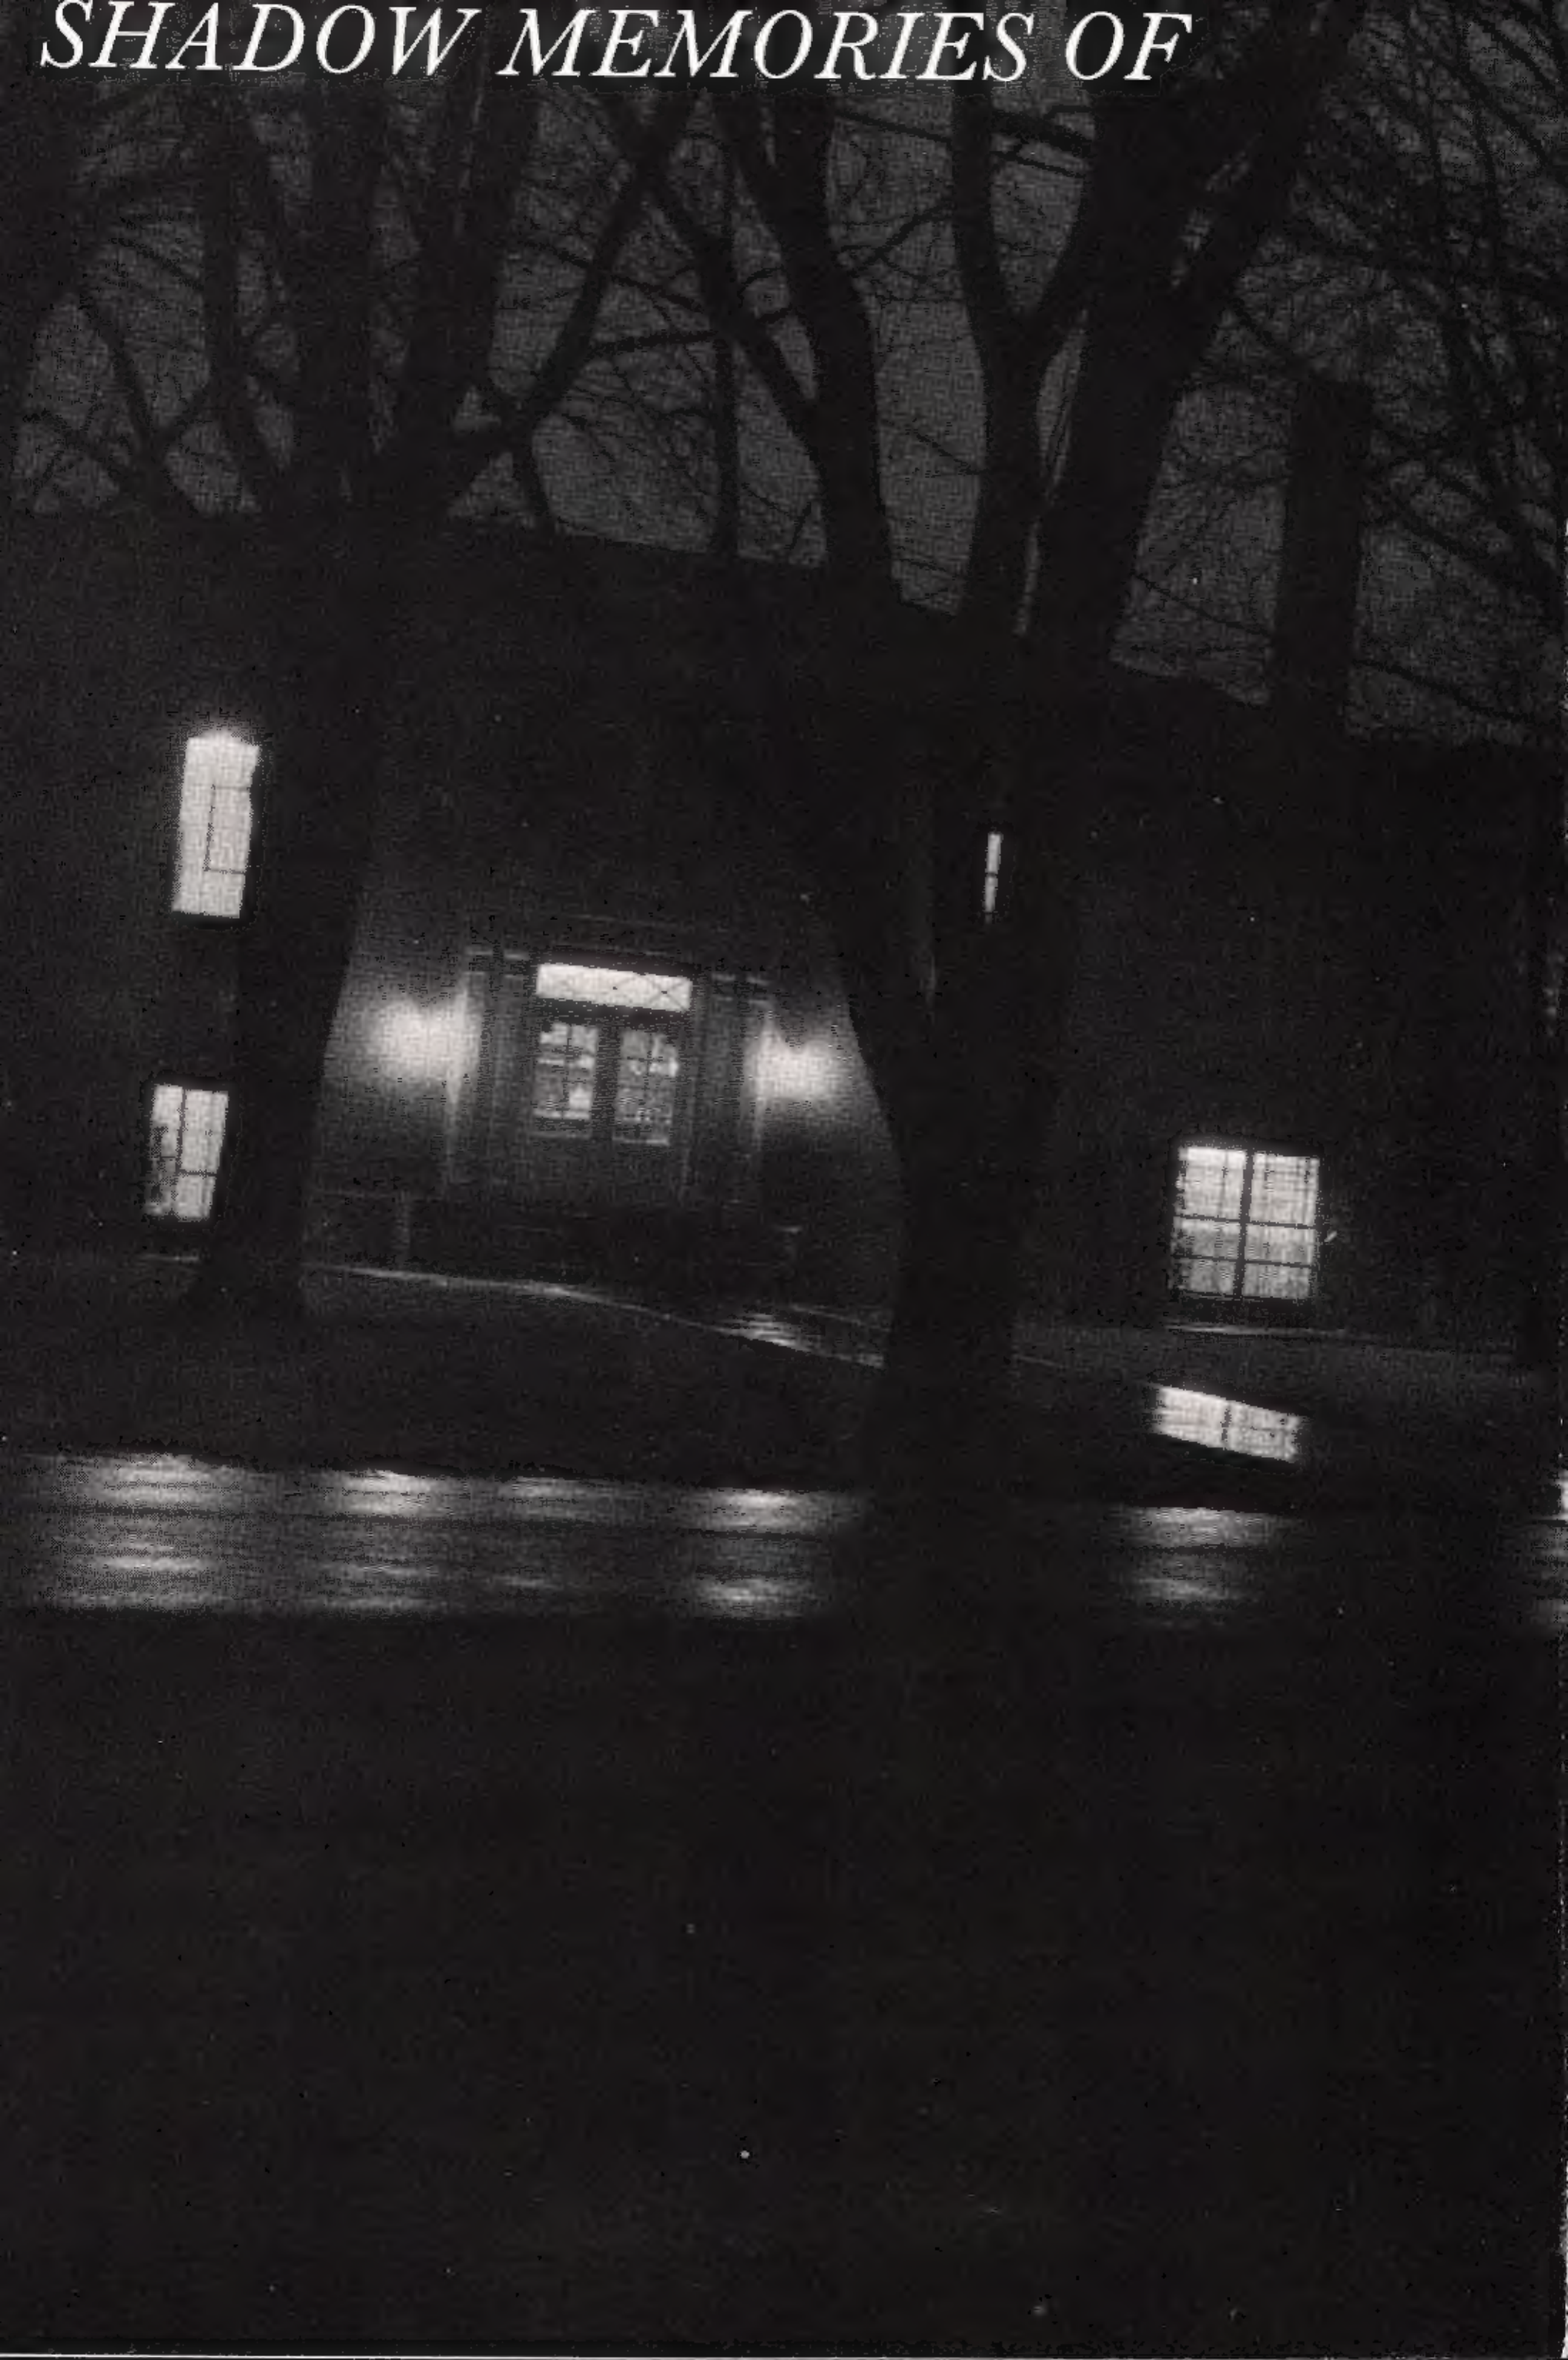

I'm the Greatest—Cassius Clay whooped it up with his handlers after he won the world heavyweight title in Miami Beach in February. He was credited with a technical knockout of Sonny Liston when Liston failed to answer the bell for the seventh round.

Alaskan Quake—A whole line of cars rested about 20 feet below street level on a main thoroughfare in Anchorage the day following the disastrous earthquake on March 27.

DEDICATION

With great pride and esteem, the Class of 1965 dedicates this edition of the SHADOW to the parents of its members. They have been, as the English critic W. H. Pater wrote, " . . . able to think calmly, and with a very practical affection, of a world in which they have no direct share." To their unselfishness, their sacrifice, their patience, and their guidance, we owe our triumphs, our joys, our bittersweet moments, our very existence.

The Senior officers, with the help of Mr. Walsh, led the class through magazine sales, annual sales, and skating parties in final preparation for their trip. They are Lynn Eicher, secretary; Tony Clymer, vice-president; Sharon Miller, president; Ellen Kay Von Deylen, treasurer.

SENIOR

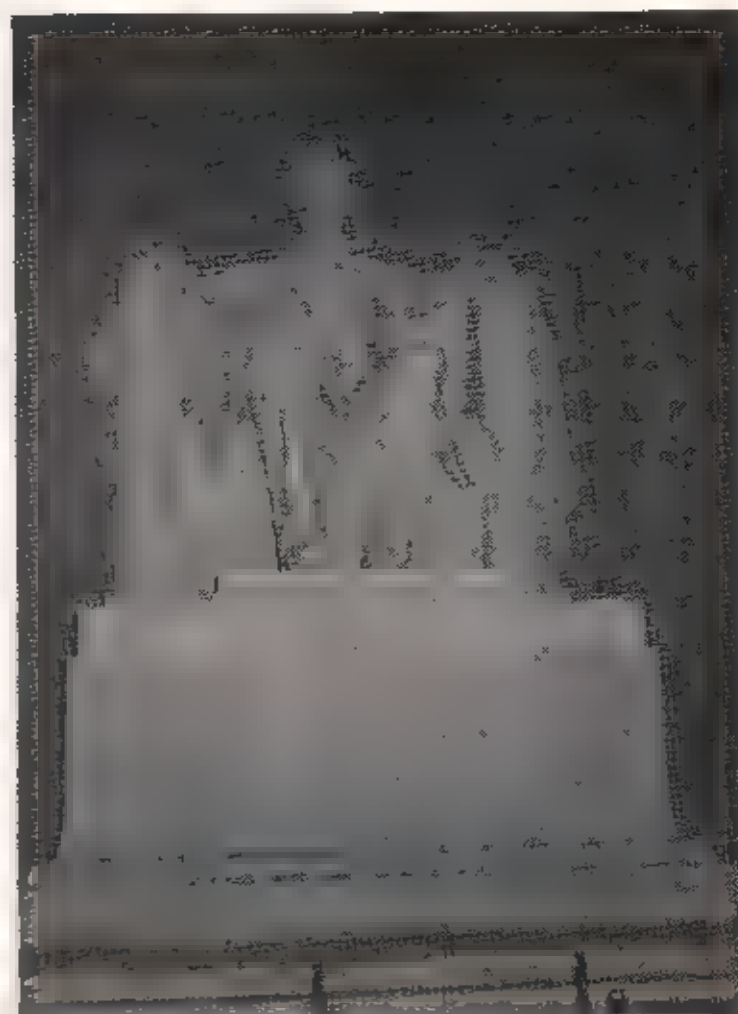

The first scenic stop for the seniors is Gettysburg. Two seniors examine an old cannon at Gettysburg, Pennsylvania.

The class visits the location of the famed Gettysburg Address.

The second stop during the eight-day trip is at Washington, D.C. Here is a view of the White House.

The seniors also visited the Lincoln Memorial. They view the huge statue of Lincoln.

TRIP

The class takes a boat to the Statue of Liberty. The temperature is over 90 degrees, but still the students climb to the top.

The trip to the Worlds Fair is exciting and long. Here is the symbol of the fair, the Unisphere.

The trip home takes twelve hours, but the class appears in good spirits after a week of fun and excitement.

SCHOOL BOARD

A TRIBUTE TO
LESTER SHORT
--Husband,

Christ.

The members of the Board of Education are elected at the general election in November, and are elected for a four-year term. The present members are: Walter Delventhal, Elias Frey, John Henry Donald Badenhop, and Arthur Hoffman. These men hold their meetings on the first Tuesday in the month. They pass judgment on various problems which are presented to them and efficiently manage expenditures of the available funds.

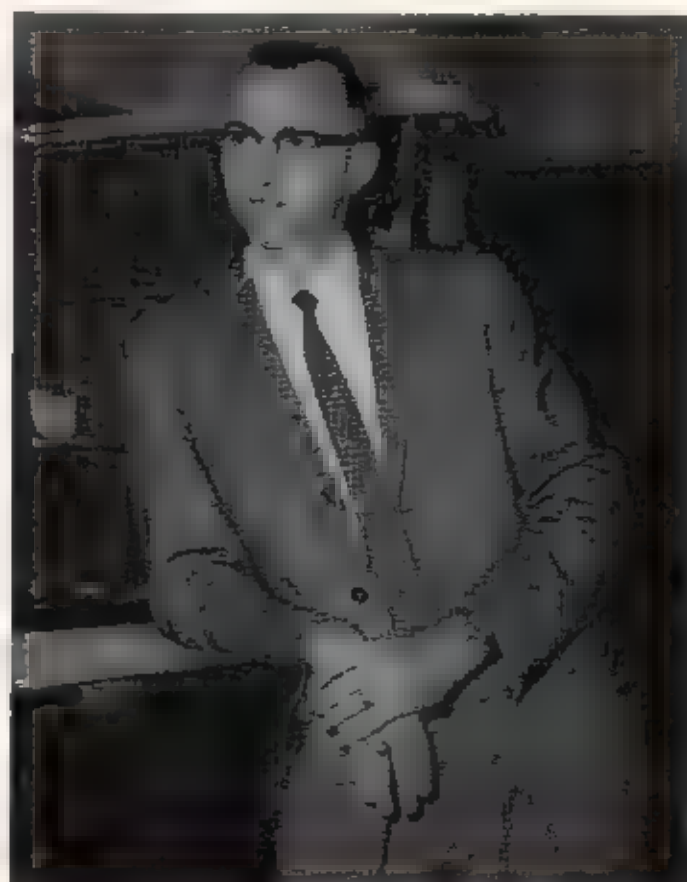

Executive Head

Mr. F. F. Hesterman, the executive head, spends a busy and work-filled day at the school. Aside from his administrative duties, he does all the ordering for the school and manages the cafeteria. He is in charge of the Pre-School Clinic each year and teaches the family class.

Principal

Mr. Jerry Walsh has many other duties aside from that of principal of the Ridgeville School. He is adviser of the senior class and the National Honor Society. He plans the schedule for the coming year and is in charge of registering the students. Mr. Walsh also teaches mathematics and coaches the Jr. High Basketball team.

The cooks prepared and served our 425 delicious and wholesome meals everyday for the hungry students and faculty at Ridgeville. They are: Mrs. Bernita Norden, substitute cook; Mrs. Martha Otte, parttime cook; Mrs. Doris Arnos, dishwasher; Mrs. Frances Gericke, full-time cook; Mrs. Bertha Schroeder, full-time cook; Mrs. Refena Norden, full-time cook.

SERVICES

Mr. Walter Rosebrock, Mr. Walter Von Deylen, and Mrs. Lillian Von Deylen are the school custodians. Their main job is to keep things in working order at the school. They are the ones who come early in the morning to open the doors of the school, and remain after the students have gone, to get the building ready for the next busy day. Their services do not end with the close of the school year. They also keep the grass cut and the grounds in order through the summer.

Bus drivers who safely transport the Ridgeville students to and from the school are: Mrs. Gwen Kruse, Mr. Arnold Ripke, Mr. Delbert Nagel, Mrs. Arlene Flory, replacing Mr. Charles Murphy who drove the first semester, Mr. Walter Houghland, and Mr. Robert Meyer.

BASKETBALL CANDIDS

The varsity cheerleaders cheered the team on to victory and kept them fighting even through defeat. They led the Falcon fans in cheers for the reserve team as well as the varsity. They are Anna Mae Von Deylen, Sue Otte, Vickie Hess, and Sharon Miller.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

The Falcon, Ridgeville's mascot, led the team to many victories in the 1964-65 season. The big bird not only represented the team's victories, but also served as a symbol of the enthusiasm shown by the students during the entire basketball season.

Pep Sessions

Coach Norris and Coach Gerken take part in one of the many skits that highlighted the pep sessions before every Falcon game. These pep sessions raised school spirit and let the team know the students were behind them all the way. Competition yells between classes came to be a part of every pep session, with each class yelling to win the title of "the class with the most school spirit."

ACTIVITIES

"IN THE MISTY MOONLIGHT"

The junior class presents their prom for the seniors entitled "In the Misty Moonlight." The evening begins with the banquet, served by the sophomore girls. The food is delicious and the fellowship is shared by everyone. Following the meal is a short program. Mr. Walsh, the senior adviser gives the opening. Dave Arnos serves as toastmaster. Nancy Hoffman gives the senior response. Mr. F. F. Hesterman gives remarks and Mr. Norris, the junior adviser, gives the closing. The students and faculty advance to the beautifully decorated gymnasium to enjoy the dance.

The gym is decorated in gold and blue streamers. Along one wall is the theme, written on a huge blue and white mural. The music for the dance is provided by the Metrtones from Metamora, Ohio. During the evening, the couples enjoy the atmosphere of the gym, the excitement of taking pictures, and the refreshing punch. After the dance, the students enjoy bowling at the Holiday Lanes and attending a picture show at the Defiance Drive-In. Many tired, but happy students return to the school for the early-morning breakfast. Everyone enjoyed a wonderful night after days of much preparation by the junior class.

HIGH SCHOOL NIGHT

Queen and Court

During the coronation, Blake Kuntz serves as crown bearer and Gail Lewis carries the flowers to the queen and court.

Queen, Susan Christofel, and escort, Roger Nagel.

Senior attendant, Mary Jo Barnes, and escort, Jerry Bostelman.

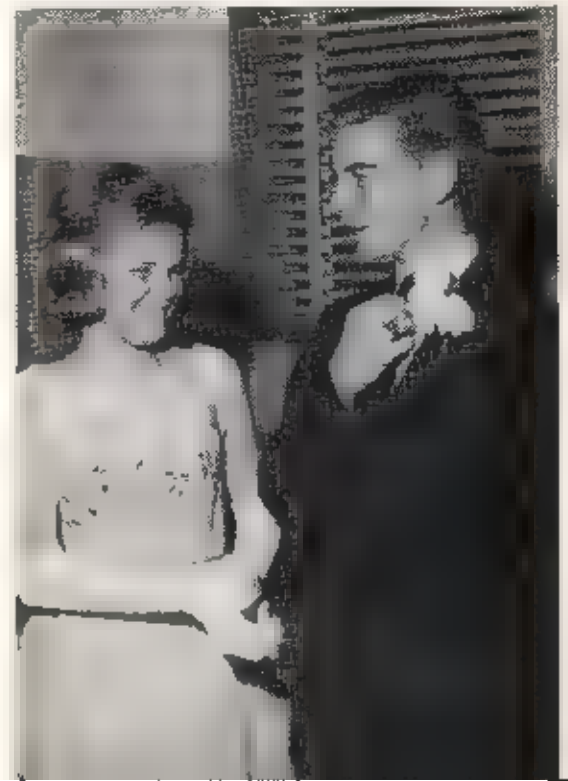

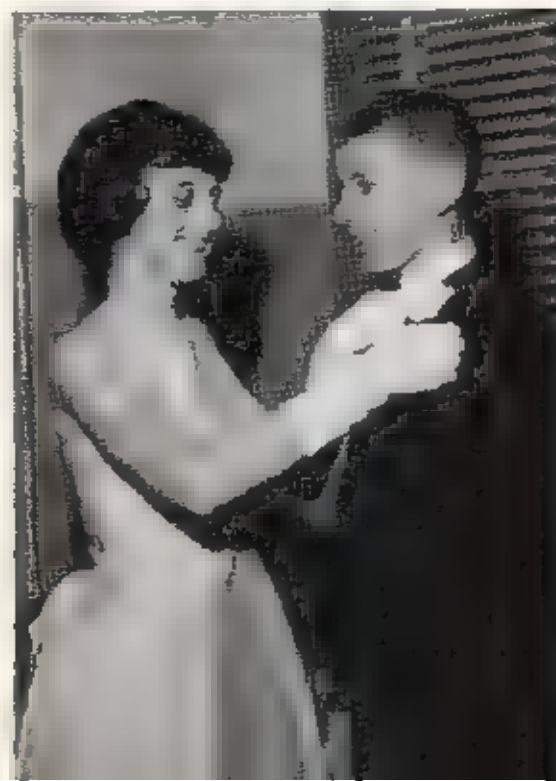

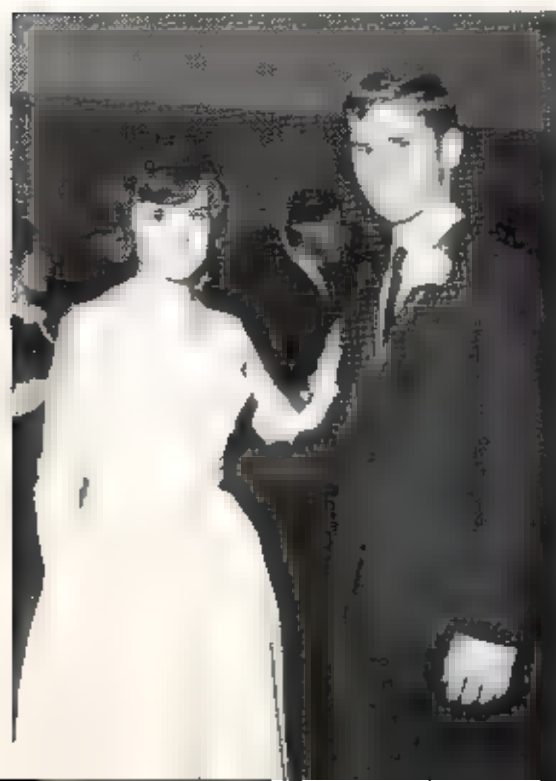

High School Night, long anticipated, is a glowing and formal affair for the Queen and her court. Here Mary Jo Barnes, Senior attendant, is being seated by her escort, Jerry Bostelman. Anna Mae Von Deylen, Junior Attendant, and her escort, Larry Wendt, are enjoying the more informal atmosphere of the dance in honor of the Queen and her court. Linda Bostelman is helping her escort, Larry Wesche, with his boutonniere prior to the coronation. The Freshman members of the court, Susan Damman and Rick Cordes are also making last minute preparations. Roger Nagel is escorting Her Majesty Queen Susan Christofel to the throne.

Junior attendant, Anna Mae Von Deylen, and escort, Larry Wendt.

Sophomore attendant, Linda Bostelman, and escort, Larry Wesche.

Freshman attendant, Susan Damman, and escort, Rick Cordes.

First prize in the Talent Contest went to Marilyn and Irene Henry's vocal duet of "How Great Thou Art." Second prize went to Sally Beck and her twirling routine.

Another act in the contest is this school skit performed by Curt Stamm, Bill Boyer, Debbie Lienau, Janice Smith, Barbara Arnos, and Sandra Lange.

Other entertainment for the evening is provided by the girls' ensemble.

Nancy Gerken's beautiful piano solo "Long Ships" won her third prize in the Talent Contest.

Talent Contest

The prize-drawing tickets are handed to the assistant manager, Bruce Fortier, by Gail Lewis and Blake Kuntz, as manager Jerry Bostelman turns the barrel which contains the ticket stubs.

Dance

Following the High School Night Program a dance is held in the Multi-Purpose Room in honor of the queen and her court. Each year this dance is sponsored by the Student Council. It is thoroughly enjoyed by everyone, and is the best attended dance of the year. For the first time, the music is provided by Ridgeville's own Stage Band.

Members of the Student Council sell the tickets as students and adults wait patiently for the queen and her court to arrive.

The music for the dance is provided by the Ridgeville Stage Band, under the direction of Mr. William Engler.

The first dance of the evening is reserved for the members of the royal court and their escorts.

The night's festivities are climaxed as the students dance the last dance before returning home.

The members of the Sr. Play are, SEATED: Ellen Kay Von Deylen, Mary Jo Barnes, Pat Ascencier, Sue Ann Hogrefe, Karen Genter, Kay Nissen, Marilyn Henry. STANDING: Susan Christofel, Marcia Short, Elmina Wiemken, Roger Nagel, Denny Behnfeldt, Tony Clymer.

During the 1964-65 marching season, the band was lead by these eight girls. They are Cecelia Beck, Cindy Eggers, Bonnie Engler, Sue Otte, Sue Ann Hogrefe, Sue Ann Norden, and Sheryl Bremer.

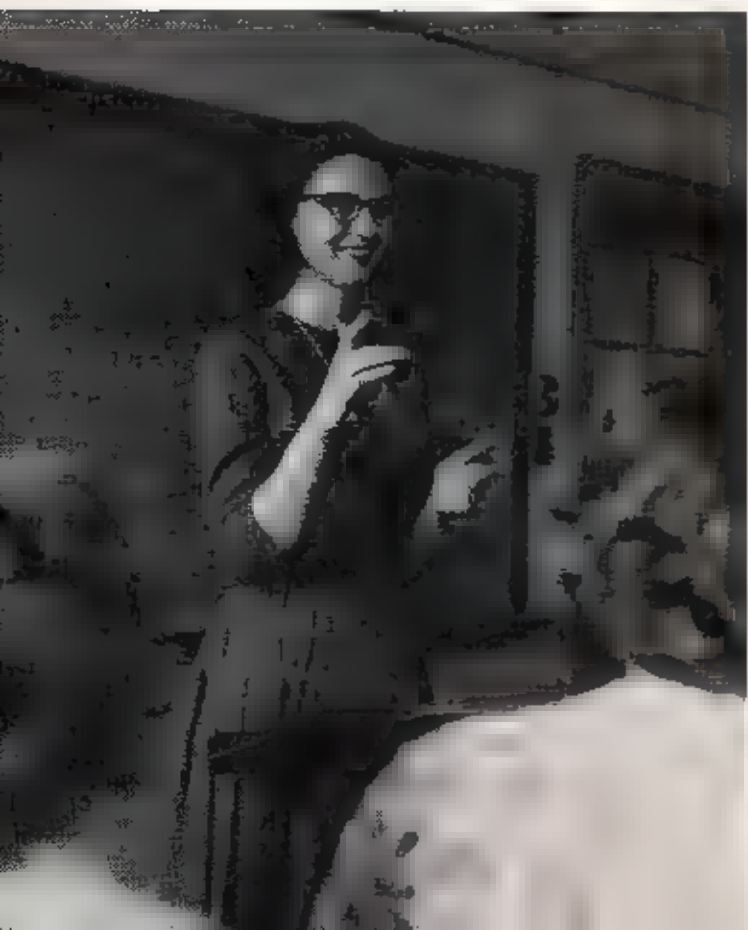

Majorettes

Directors

Mrs. Engler, the vocal music director, has her days at Ridgeville filled to the brim. Not only is she the elementary music teacher, but also has charge of the choruses. Mrs. Engler's time and effort is aimed in teaching the Jr. High Chorus, the Girls' Chorus, and the Teen Troupe. In addition, each year she directs a successful operetta, given by the elementary.

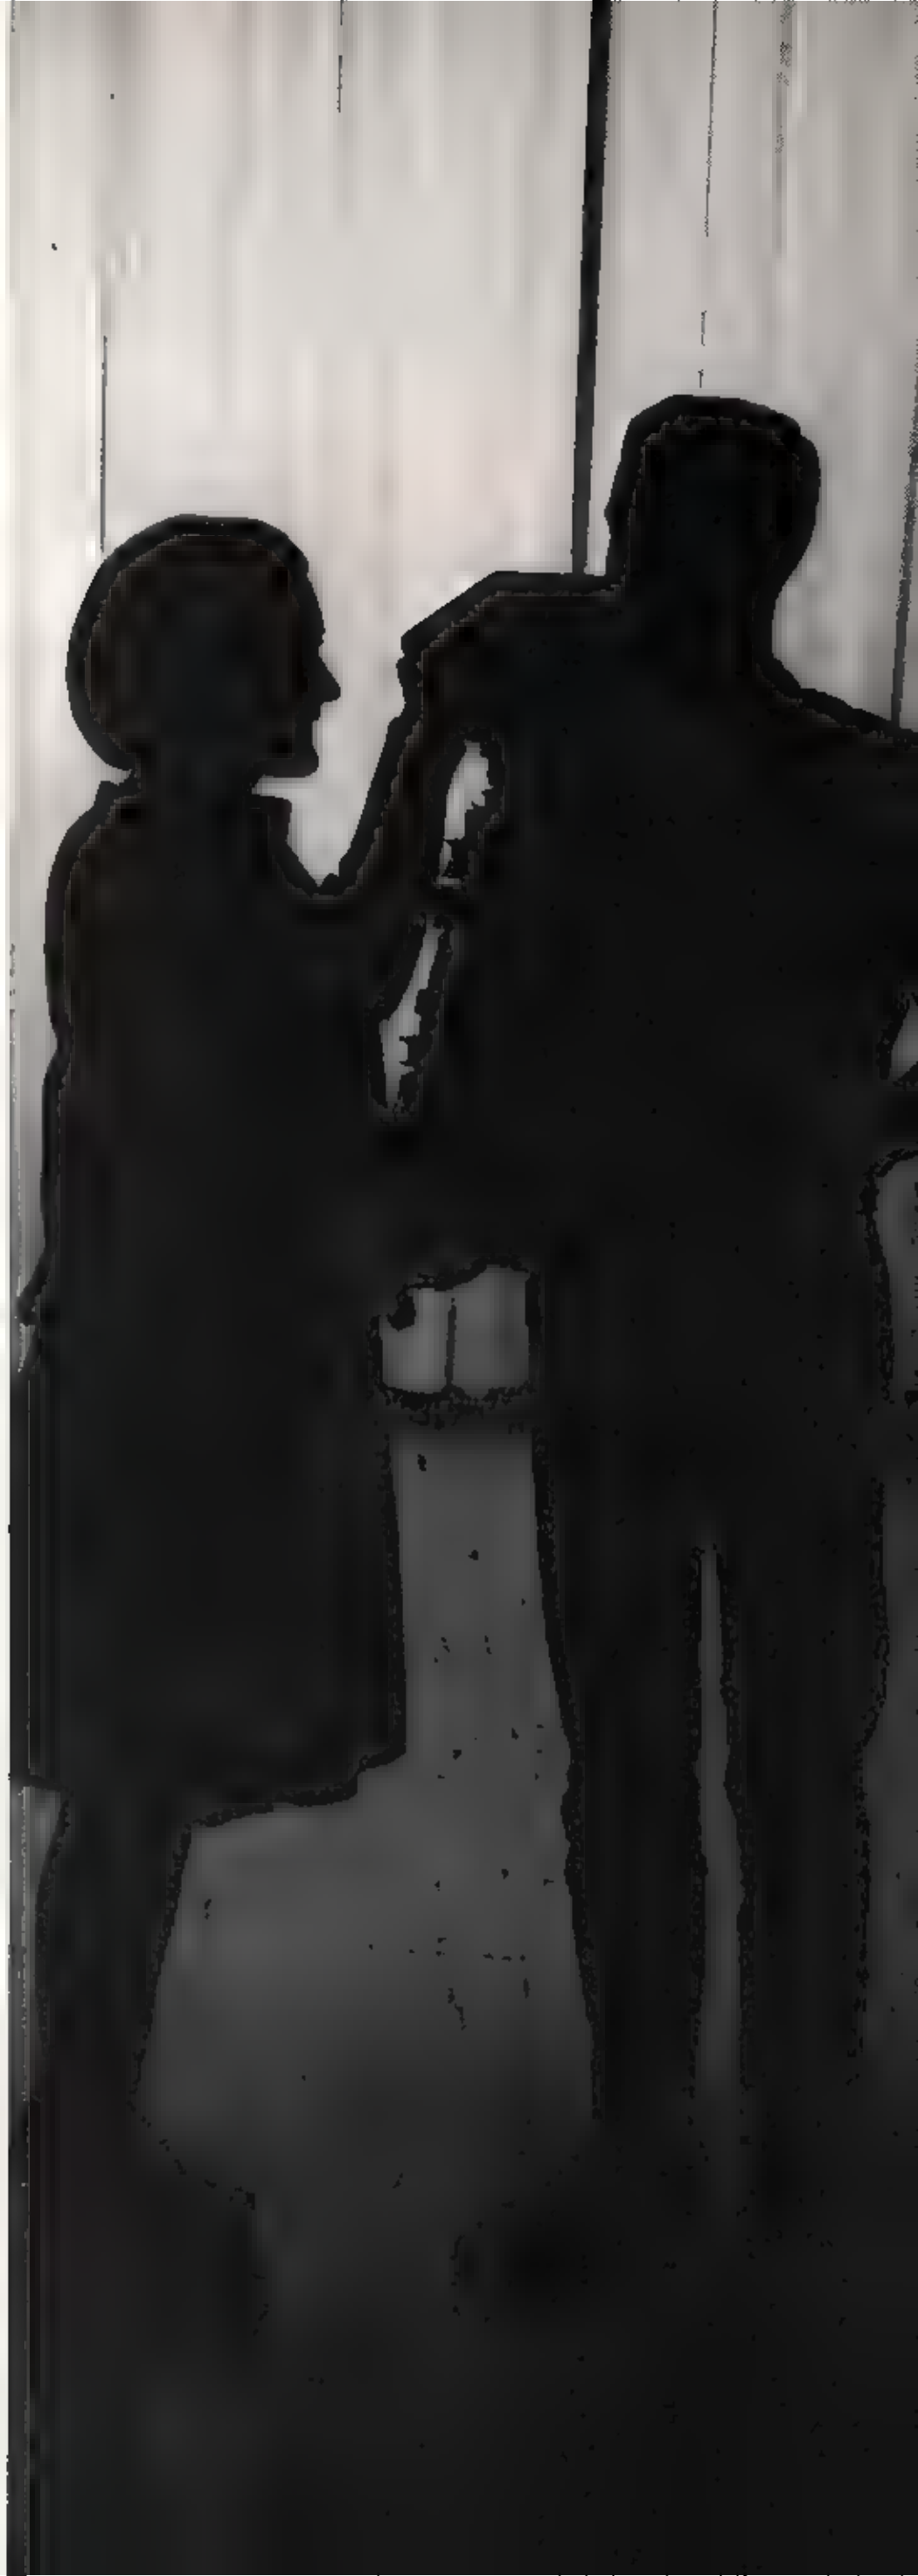

Ridgeville's Superior-rated band owes its style and precision to Mr. Engler's painstaking and patient direction. His diligent work, along with the long hours of practice by the band members, gained the band a Superior Rating at the District Contest at Bowling Green, Ohio. This then enabled them to compete in the State Finals at Ashland, Ohio. During the course of a year, the eighty-seven members of the Ridgeville Band are very busy. They perform many times, both at parades and concerts. Their parade activities include Memorial Day, Bryan Jubilee, Henry County Fair, Harvest Festival at Holgate, Firemen's Convention, Christmas Parade, and Halloween Parade. The Band Parents sponsor both an annual Pancake & Sausage Supper and an Ice Cream Social. The members of the band prepare and present a Christmas Program and a Spring Concert. Each year the band is asked to perform at the High School Nite festivities and Commencement. Along with these many activities, the members enjoy giving exchange concerts with area schools and just playing for their own enjoyment.

During each basketball season, the sophomore class has charge of the concession stand. This is the money-making project of that year. All the hard work of popping popcorn for the Falcon fans and their opponents is very much appreciated. Pictured above is Michael Henry, who took his turn in working in the stand.

The Sophomore class elected these officers who, with the help of their adviser, Mr. Gerken, guided them through their second year of high school. Pictured together they are: Dennis Rohrs, Secretary; Jim Rentz, President; Roger Genter, Treasurer; and Steven Meyer, Vice-President.

Miss Yolanda Sito and Mr. Robert Coleman are student teachers at Ridgeville. They are both studying at Defiance College. Miss Sito is helping Mrs. Engler with the elementary vocal music and directs the Jr. High Chorus. Mr. Coleman teaches algebra.

Teachers

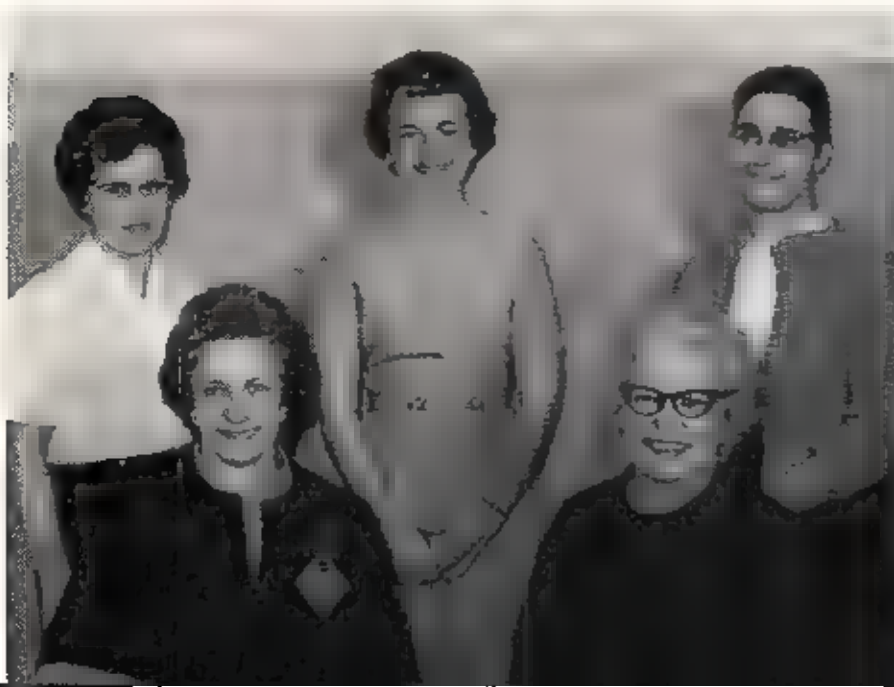

A "Miss Peach" Award was given to Mrs. Helen Landman by Lee Ann Eicher, one of her fifth grade students, who won the award for her through a contest in the Toledo Blade.

Migrant Classes

These ladies taught and assisted in teaching the Migrant students during their short stay at Ridgeville. They are: Mrs. Virginia Wesche, Mrs. Marie Benecke, Mrs. Phyllis Hesterman, Mrs. Elta Roegge, Mrs. Doris Stamm, and Mrs. Estella Hoffman (not pictured).

The classes also enjoy recreation as well as classroom work. Here the students are playing an exciting game of softball under the supervision of Mrs. Benecke.

“TOM SAWYER”

Elementary Operetta

The cast for "Tom Sawyer" is as follows:

Tom Sawyer	Robert Buehrer
Huck Finn	Tom Benecke
Joe Harper	Billy Boyer
Ben Rodgers	Mark Boelter
Aunt Polly	Janice Smith
Becky Thatcher	Patricia Norden
Amy Lawrence	Beth Nelson
Widow Douglas	Nancy Roehl
Injun Joe	Ricky Baden
Muff Potter	Bob Von Deylen
Pard	Steve Hoffman
Sid	Steve Hesterman
Alfred Temple	Mike Meyer
Mary	Patricia Beck
Rev. Walters	Frankie Rohrs
Judge Thatcher	David Meyer
Dr. Robinson	Roy Von Deylen

The sunflowers, portrayed by the fourth grade girls, dance with Amy Lawrence, played by Beth Nelson.

April 2 was the date of the annual elementary operetta, presented by grades four, five, and six. The story of the play was of the adventures of Tom Sawyer and his many friends. Tom's Aunt Polly tries to be stern, but is always won over by his amusing antics. Tom, Huck Finn, and Joe Harper run away from home and spend the night on a deserted island. The folks at home think the boys are dead and as a climax, the three attend their own funeral. The entire program is filled with suspenseful and exciting adventure.

The cast members busily make last minute preparations before the actual performance.

Chou Listens—Red Chinese Premier Chou En-Lai held an earpiece as he listened to an address by the Soviet Union's new party leader, Leonid Brezhnev, during a meeting of world Communists in Moscow on November 6. Alexei Kosygin, Soviet premier, is at right.

They Died in '64—These world figures died during the year. From left are Prime Minister Nehru of India, General Douglas MacArthur of the United States and former President Herbert Hoover.

Stretcher Cases—Wounded white hostages and Belgian paratroopers were carried from rescue plane at Leopoldville after it arrived from Stanleyville November 24. The paratroopers descended on the rebel-held Congo city just as a massacre of hostages began, and their quick work saved the lives of hundreds.

New President—Foreign Minister Giuseppe Saragat (right) was formally notified in Rome on the night of December 28 that he had been elected president of Italy.

World Events in Review—1964

Alliance Talks—British Foreign Secretary Patrick Gordon Walker, left, talked with West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard in Bonn on November 15 during efforts to find a compromise on a new nuclear force for the troubled Atlantic Alliance.

Pope Visits India—The 38th International Eucharistic Congress opened in Bombay, India, on November 28. In December, Pope Paul VI made the longest papal journey in history to attend sessions of the congress.

Winnie at 90—Winston Churchill acknowledged cheers of well-wishers who gathered outside the window of his Hyde Park home in London on November 30. The occasion was his 90th birthday.

Tokyo, Japan—William H. Mills (left) of the U. S. A., led Mohamed Cammoudi of Tunisia across the finish line to win the Olympic 10,000 meter event on October 14.

Swampy Victory—A group of Viet Cong prisoners sat quietly in Camau last October while guarded by armed South Vietnamese troops. The prisoners were among those captured during a major battle on the Camau peninsula.

Reunions at the Wall—An East German mother embraced her West German children last November at the Helmstedt railway station after the border dividing East and West Germany was opened for the first time since 1961 for East Germans.

Change of Power—Alexei Kosygin, 60, left, and Leonid Brezhnev, 57, respectively, were named to be premier of the Soviet Union and secretary of the Communist party on October 15. They took over the posts vacated by the resignation of Nikita Khrushchev.
